Andrew Broad

Assistant Minister to the Deputy Prime Minister
Member for Mallee

Monday 27 July 2018

ANDREW BROAD WELCOMES MORRISON MCCORMACK GOVERNMENT AND NEW ROLE

Federal Member for Mallee, Andrew Broad said he is looking forward to working with the new Morrison McCormack Government following the announcement of the Ministry list yesterday.

Mr Broad will join six other Victorian MP's including Senator Bridget McKenzie and Member for Gippsland Darren Chester MP after being appointed Assistant Minister to the Deputy Prime Minister.

“This new role is a tremendous honour, and I am looking forward to serving even more regional Australians across our country.”

Mr Broad is the first Member for Mallee to be appointed a ministry position and said he will hit the ground running in the next few weeks.

“My new responsibilities will include assisting with infrastructure, transport and regional development alongside Deputy Prime Minister, Michael McCormack. This is a portfolio I am passionate about and gives great opportunity to afford regional Australians better outcomes for their communities and their families including the people in the great Electorate of Mallee.”

Mr Broad will travel to Canberra today to be sworn by the Governor-General, The Honourable Sir Peter Cosgrove AK MC.
