NORTHERN MALLEE LEADERS 2018 PROGRAM OPEN FOR APPLICATIONS.

Applications are now open to be a part of the 2018 Northern Mallee Leaders Program.

Federal Member for Mallee, Andrew Broad is calling for people from all walks of life who want to make a contribution to their local community to apply.

“The Northern Mallee Leaders program is a fantastic opportunity for people to gain the skills required to make a significant difference in their community,” he said.

The program runs for a period of ten months between February and November for up to 24 participants with 20 scheduled program days including trips to Canberra and Melbourne.

“Each day is held in a different location and around a topic that is relevant to the Northern Mallee,” he said.

“We have recently hosted this year’s group at Parliament House in Canberra where they had the opportunity to get up close and personal with the nations politicians.”

The program aims to inspire and assist locals living within the Northern Mallee to make a difference in whatever field they find interesting. Some themes covered throughout the year include: agriculture, water, the environment, community development and education.
