CASA APPOINT NEW CHAIR FROM MILDURA

Federal Member for Mallee, Andrew Broad MP has congratulated newly appointed Chair of the Civil Aviation Safety Authority (CASA), Anthony Matthews.

Hailing from Mildura, Mr Broad said Anthony is a wealth of knowledge when it comes to aviation and is a great fit for the role.

“Tony has formerly worked as Qantas Regional Airline Manager, Royal Flying Doctor Service Manager and is a highly qualified commercial and airline transport pilot, it is great to see him step up to this role where I’m sure he will be very successful.”

“Australia’s aviation industry continues to grow significantly and CASA plays an integral role in ensuring our air safety regulations are world class,” Mr Broad said.

Mr Matthews has been appointed for a three year term, as officially announced by Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Infrastructure and Transport, the Hon Michael McCormack MP this morning.
